We learn that the City of Melbourne will take forward some 350 Rales of Pulu, which will nearly exhangt the stock on hand here. The price in conseopence, has advanced, there not being sufficient in market to fill orders. We may expect the price for Puln to advance somewhat, at the same time we would that there will be a sermon preached on Thursday caution our Pulu friends to be careful not to press the evening next, (St. Matthew's Day,) by the Venerable market, as we have no hopes of seeing it advance to Arch Deacon Mason, at the St. Andrew's Temporary former high prices, viz. 12 to 15 cts.

There are no vessels loading for California and not much freight effering.

Wynn.-Left Bremen May 23d and cleard the afterwards apprehended and lodged in the station receiving freight, a disturbance took place, which was confined to two of the crew-who appear to culties and the officers. As the last package was being put into the lighter, the mate went into the cabin to write out a receipt, while the second mate leaned over the rail to see that it was carefully handled. One of the men, who was near by, immediately took him by the feet and upset him into the lighter-a distance of about twenty-five feet. Although considerably bruised and atunued by such a Tux Schooner Soversign is undergoing repairs previous to dreadful fall, he endeavored to gain his feet, but while attempting to do so, his assailant threw a heavy block at him, weighing about fifty pounds, with the evident intention of striking him on the head, but which struck him on the shoulder.
